The Eisl Futura countertop battery without a shower is suitable for every modern and rustic kitchen. It is a classic taller model that allows for easier filling of large containers. However, the aesthetic aspect of the battery does not lag behind its practical functionality. For a favorable price, you can purchase an elegant model that is perfectly usable in every household.

The battery contains a ceramic 40 mm cartridge, which is quiet. The kitchen battery can be installed on a flow water heater, however, it is not recommended for low-pressure devices. The warranty is 2 years.

We offer this battery in a variety of colors:

- Shiny chrome

Key features of the Eisl Futura sink faucet
